

Article I. NAME

INSTRUCTIONS

Give the full name of the organization, as well as any abbreviated or shortened forms that may

EXAMPLE

The name of this organization is Students Advocating Lettuce and Dressing, also known as SALAD.

Article II. PURPOSE

INSTRUCTIONS

State the purpose, aim, and function of the organization, as well as its main mission-supporting activities. Remember that all student organizations at USA must have separate and distinct missionsew organizat4nscanrpoe iven o puep-3.liceetistrprgstuheprrgoueps.t

EXAMPLE

SALAD's sole purpose is the promotion of salad consumption among University of South Alabama students. SALAD believes a daily salad is the key to physical and mental well-being. To increase salad awareness on campus, SALAD will conduct pop-up informational sessions, host nutritionists and other speakers, and hold an annual food festival called SALAD DAYS.

Article III. NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

INSTRUCTIONS

The non-

University of South Alabama Student Organization Constitution Guide

University of South Alabama Student Organization Constitution Guide

Article VIII. FINANCES

INSTRUCTIONS

Section 1. Financial Transparency Statement

The financial transparency statement in the example below must be included word-for-word. Copy-and-paste it into your constitution. Make no additions or deletions!

Section 2. Bank Account

This section should provide general information regarding the organization's bank account. Will it be an on-campus or off-campus account? Refer to student organization handbook for more information.

Section 3: Dues

If the organization has dues, this section explains how they are assessed and collected.

Section 4: Dissolution

This section explains what happens to the organization's funds should the organization become inactive. Feel free to Copy-and-paste example into your constitution inserting your non-profit.

EXAMPLE

Section 1. Financial Transparency Statement

All accounts, financial records, and transactions of the organization are subject to audit

University of South Alabama Student Organization Constitution Guide

Article IX. AMENDMENTS AND BYLAWS

INSTRUCTIONS

Explain how the constitution can be amended and how bylaws can be adopted.

EXAMPLE

Amendments and bylaws can be proposed in writing by any member at any regular meeting. A majority vote is required for adoption.